Professional Experience

Mariana Soares David joined Morais Leitão in 2006 and became a partner in 2023. She is a member of the firm's litigation and arbitration team.

She has a significant track record of litigation and arbitration proceedings successfully settled through highly complex multi-party negotiations.

Throughout her career, Mariana has specialised in the prevention and resolution of disputes concerning the product value chain (namely related to the negotiation and termination of agency, franchise and commercial distribution contracts, product labelling and safety, producer liability, consumer rights, e-commerce and general contractual clauses) as well as those related to environmental/ESG liability. Her articles and publications on distribution agreements are cited by Portuguese case law.

Mariana was awarded as Product Liability Lawyer of the Year, at European level, in 2020 and 2021, by the Women in Business Law Awards.

She also has accrued experience in class actions, agribusiness, transport of hazardous products, insurance contracts, unfair competition, as well as in the resolution of disputes arising therefrom.

Mariana is certified as mediator and mediation master advocate by the Instituto de Certificação e Formação de Mediadores Lusófonos (ICFML) and is part of the exclusive list of mediators certified by the International Mediation Institute. She is also part
