Professional Experience

Sophie Frazão joined Morais Leitão in 2019. She is a member of the Africa Team – an internal structure of the firm that provides permanent assistance to clients present in Portuguese-speaking African countries, while in close cooperation with the Morais Leitão Legal Circle network.

Her practice focuses on the areas of labor law, public employment and public contracting, having advised multiple public and private entities in these areas.

As a partner at BAS – Sociedade de Advogados – she coordinated the international partnership with Angola, gathering vast experience in the support of international companies that wish to establish themselves in that market and in several areas, such as foreign investment, corporate investment, commercial and labor contracts.

Previously, she worked at Barrocas Sarmento Neves – Sociedade de Advogados.
